Typography & Printing History

FIRST and ONLY EDITION. The author is one of the foremost authorities on the history of early printing in Portugal. Of his Origens da imprensa em Portugal (Portuguese edition 1981, French edition 1983), F.J. Norton wrote, “Splendid book … I have been greatly impressed by the completeness of its information and by its concision of expression, excluding all useless speculation.” Two more volumes of the present work were projected: volume II to cover 1536-1768, volume III, 1768 to the present. They have yet to appear.

4 volumes in 3. $1,600.00

FIRST and ONLY EDITION of a COMPLETE RUN of this journal for a society of bibliophiles, the organ of the only such organization which ever existed in Portugal. Among the collaborators were J.J. Gomes de Brito, the Conde de Sabugosa, and Xavier da Cunha.

Item 1
Argues that Philip IV of Spain is the Legitimate King of Portugal
Printed in Civilité Type

3. CARAMUEL LOBKOWITZ, Juan. Respuesta al Manifiesto del Reyno de Portugal. Antwerp: En la Oficina Plantiniana de Balthasar Moreto, 1642. 4° (23.5 x 18 cm.), contemporary vellum (wormed, front inner hinge split), short author-title written vertically in dark ink manuscript on spine. Large woodcut publisher’s device on title. Elegant woodcut initials, some rather large. Portions of text in Civilité type. Light browning; some light foxing and small stains. Worming, mostly in the upper blank margins, touching an occasional letter of the headline. Tear in T1 (9 cm.), without loss. In near-good condition. Early ink signature (scored) on title page. Early ink manuscript note on front pastedown endleaf. Old ink manuscript (shelfmark?) “S.g.22” on rear pastedown endleaf. (8 ll.), 198 pp., (1 l.), 1 folding letterpress genealogical chart.

FIRST EDITION of this work arguing that Philip II of Spain (son of the Emperor Charles V and his wife the Infanta Isabel of Portugal) and his heirs are the legitimate kings of Portugal: “Reçucitan oy amotinados Portugueses un cadauer, que nunca vivió; un derecho, que nunca fué; una causa, que nunca pudo subistir” (f. 1v). Pages 9-36 are a reprint in the original Portuguese of a work by Portuguese patriot Antonio Pais Viegas, Manifesto do Reino de Portugal, 1641, which had been widely circulated. Most of the remainder of this volume (pp. 37-156) is Caramuel Lobkowitz’s response to Pais Viegas. He includes 30 pages of genealogical arguments, among which are a discussion of the marriage (or not) of the unfortunate D. Ines de Castro (d. 1355) and D. Pedro I of Portugal (pp. 85-107). The final section (pp. 158-198) is Caramuel Lobkowitz’s reply to 9 other works that supported D. João’s claims.

Another edition of the Respuesta was published at Santangel de la Fratta, 1665. There is also an edition of La Coruña, 2008. A Latin translation by Leandro van der Bandt appeared in Louvain, 1642: Joannes Bargantinus Lusitaniae illegitimus rex demonstratus.

The Respuesta is a rare and previously unrecorded use of Civilité type, not listed in the appendix to Carter & Vervliet, Civilité Types.

The work is dedicated to the first Conde de Assumar, Francisco de Melo, who was granted the title by Philip III in 1630. When the Conde remained loyal to the Habsburgs after D. João IV ascended the Portuguese throne in 1640, his title was revoked by the Portuguese monarch, but continued to be recognized in Spain.

Juan Caramuel Lobkowitz (Madrid, 1606-Vigevano, Lombardy, 1682) had a brilliant career as a clergyman and was the author of over 200 works. After studying mathematics and Asian languages (especially Chinese), he entered the Cistercian order at La Espina (Palencia). While attached to the monastery of Dunes in Flanders, his sermons attracted the attention of the Infante Ferdinand, governor of the Low Countries. In 1638, the University of Louvain bestowed an honorary Doctor of Theology degree upon him. Caramuel Lobkowitz notes in the dedication (f. *2v) that he had penned Philippus Prudens Caroli V. Imp. fiius Lusitaniae Algarbie, Indiae, Brasiliae legitimus rex demonstratus, Antwerp, 1639, to defend the Habsburg right to the throne. That work provoked Antonio Pais Viegas to publish the Manifesto do Reino de Portugal, which in turn provoked the present work.
RESPUESTA AL MANIFIESTO DEL REYNO DE PORTUGAL.

Por D. Ivan Caramuel Lobkowitz, Religioso de Dunas, Dotor de S. Theulugia, Abad de Melos, y Vicario General de la Orden de Cifter por los Reynos de Inglaterra, Irlanda, Escocia.

EN ANBERES EN LA OFICINA PLANTINIANA DE BALTHASAR MORETO.
M. D. C. XLII.
Judging from the aprobación on f. 4v, when this work appeared, its author was titular abbot of Melrose (in Scotland).

Caramuel Lobkowitz subsequently served as envoy from the king of Spain to the court of Emperor Ferdinand III, abbot-superior of the Benedictines in Vienna, grand-vicar to the archbishop of Prague, bishop of Konigratz, archbishop of Otranto, and bishop of Vigevano. His published works range from grammar, poetry, and canon law to mathematics (he focused on combinatorics and probability), logic, astronomy, and asceticism. Alphonsus Liguori (later sanctified) condemned Caramuel Lobkowitz as “Prince of the Laxists.”

FIRST and ONLY EDITION of this excellent bibliography.

FIRST and ONLY EDITION. Contains 519 works, giving pagination, size, bibliographical citations, call number, and comments on the condition of the copy. There are indices of authors, anonymous works by title, place of printing, printers, publishers and booksellers (with places of printing and dates of activity), dates of printing, and illustrators. One extremely useful feature is that variant title pages and other examples of variant printings are illustrated side by side—some of these variants have never before been described.

Item 3

FIRST and ONLY EDITION of this nicely produced catalogue, designed by Manuel Rodrigues Pereira da Silva, of an interesting exhibition held at the Museu de Electricidade, Lisbon. Each of the 100 volumes exhibited is meticulously catalogued. The author of the excellent introductory matter has been working for some time on a more elaborate study of the Craesbeeks, who printed and published books in Portugal from the late sixteenth to the late seventeenth century. The founder of the dynasty in Portugal, Pedro Crasebeeck, or Pieter van Craesbeeck (ca. 1572-1632), had apprenticed with Plantin in Antwerp.

Item 14

FIRST EDITION. This is the original edition, which went out of print soon after publication. The only work in English to survey Gutenberg scholarship from the fifteenth century to the mid-1980s; also includes a detailed discussion of the 42-line Bible of 1455. *14. JÜSTEN, Helga Maria. Incunábulos e post-incunábulos portugueses (ca. 1488-1518). (Em redor do material tipográfico dos impressos portugueses). Preface by João [José] Alves Dias. Lisbon: Centro de Estudos Históricos, Universidade Nova de Lisboa, 2009 [i.e. 2010?]. Folio (30.5 x 21.5 cm.), publisher’s illustrated boards. New. 593 pp., numerous illustrations, some in color, tables in text, ample bibliography. $100.00

FIRST and ONLY EDITION of this important new bibliographical study of early Portuguese printing and typography. While there is no justification for the size of the edition in the book, we were told by the publisher that only approximately 500 copies were printed.

FIRST and ONLY EDITION. Short-title catalogue of 1,966 titles in the collection of the Biblioteca Nacional, Lisboa. Many are held in more than one copy. Author, title, place of printing, date and format are given. There are bibliographical citations for each listing, as well as call numbers for the copy or copies. While collations are not provided, incomplete copies are noted, sometimes with specifics as to what is lacking. A significant number of unique specimens exist in this collection. This is an essential reference work, including valuable indices (pp. 467 to the final unnumbered page), of secondary authors; titles; printers; publishers and booksellers; as well as a chronological index is organized by place of printing and printers.

First published edition. An earlier version appeared as a Master’s thesis in 1995. The author has worked with manuscript sources in Portuguese archives. Nevertheless, this is mainly a work of synthesis. It is most useful and interesting, and a book from which much can be gleaned, especially regarding printing history and typographical evidence. However, the section on Portuguese shipwreck narratives could have been greatly improved had the author read and incorporated the findings of Charles Boxer’s “An Introduction to the História Trágico-marítima,” in Miscelânea de estudos em honra do Prof. Hernâni Cidade (1957).

FIRST and ONLY EDITION of this superb continuation of Perez Pastor’s classic three-volume Bibliografía madrileña of Madrid imprints to 1625. For each of the 3692 entries, in addition to the author, title, place, printer and date, when possible collations, bibliographical citations and locations are given. An introductory study and historical notes occupy pp. 7-114 (including a Relación de impresores, pp. 43-87, and a section on Libreros, pp. 88-114). This is followed by a bibliography (pp. 115-21). In the second volume, after the main text, there is an abbreviated alphabetical list of editions cited (pp. 1127-1312), an index of printers (pp. 1313-6), an index of “costeadores” (pp. 1317-8), a general index of names (pp. 1319-38), an index of dedicatees (pp. 1339-46), an index of legal preliminaries (pp. 1347-60), an index of translators, poets and engravers (pp. 1361-74), a geographical index (pp. 1375-86), a thematic index (pp. 1387-1406), and an index of first lines (pp. 1407-54).

First and only edition thus. Includes a facsimile of the copy at the Palace Library, Vila Viçosa (formerly belonging to D. Manuel II), with some additional leaves supplied in facsimile from the copy at the University Library, Turin.

FIRST and ONLY EDITION.

Instructions for Compositors in Hebrew, Greek and Arabic

*20. OLIVEIRA, Custodio José de. Diagnóstico tipográfico dos caracteres gregos, hebraicos, e arabigos ... para melhor correção, e uso dos compostores, e aprendizes da Imprensa Regia .... Lisbon: Impressão Regia, 1804. 4°, later wrappers (somewhat frayed) Small woodcut Portuguese royal arms on title-page. Faint marginal dampstains on title-page. Uncut. In fine condition. 72 pp., (7 ll. with dedication), viii pp. [the “Prefácio aos Compositores”], (2 ll. with 4 engravings on 4 pp.). $1,200.00

FIRST EDITION of this work written by one of the Directores Litterarios of the Impressão Regia, to instruct compositors about the Hebrew, Greek, and Arabic alphabets so that fewer mistakes would be made when setting type in those languages. Numerous tables and inserts within the text show the alphabets and numbers of each language, and 4 plates show common ligatures and abbreviations of Greek. Innocência describes the work as “trabalho mui aproveitavel, para o tempo em que sahiu,” and notes that it is the only work he knows of on this subject that was originally written in Portuguese.

Oliveira, a professor of Greek in Lisbon, was at the Impressão Regia until at least 1807. He was given a pension to work on a Greek dictionary, which remained incomplete at his death ca. 1812. Oliveira also wrote a text for students of Greek and a few works on Greek authors.

There is some confusion among bibliographers about the collation of the Diagnosis. Innocência calls for xvi, vii, 72 pp., but mentions no plates. The Monteverde catalogue, describing an actual copy, gives xiii, 72 pp., and calls for 2 leaves with engravings: it would appear to be lacking the “Prefaço aos compositores” found in our copy. NUC, describing the copy at New York Public Library, calls for only viii, 72 pp., and notes that pp. 1-2 are lacking; the New York Public Library copy therefore appears to be lacking the 7-leaf dedication. NUC (out of alphabetical order) also lists Oliveira’s Diagnosis específica, 1803 (not in Innocência), with a collation of 72 pp. and 2 plates, whose captions are the same as those on the plates in this copy; this might possibly be an earlier edition or issue; we have never seen a copy.

FIRST and ONLY EDITION, Special Issue—One of 120 copies printed on Hahnemühle Biblio mould-made paper, designed by Jerry Kelly, set by the Bixlers and printed at the Stinehour Press. Specially bound by Judi Conant and containing a group of broadsides printed from the original foundry versions of some of the faces discussed, laid into a portfolio affixed to the rear paste-down. Printers of the seven broadsides are Dale Guild Printing Office, Firefly Press, the Bibliographic Press at Yale, Kelly-Winterton, Wells College Press, Dard Hunter II, and Cary Library Press. There were another 600 copies printed of the regular issue.

This work is a survey of typefaces developed in America after 1892 intended for composition in metal for the use of an individual or press. It includes articles on Bruce Rogers, Dard Hunter, Frederic Warde, Victor Hammer and others.

FIRST and ONLY EDITION. Provides collations by pagination and signatures, bibliographical references, provenance, call numbers and peculiarities of the particular copy or copies. Despite the ugly printing and apparently somewhat hasty preparation, the volume is indispensable for the study of 16th-century Portuguese books.

FIRST and ONLY EDITION. Includes 99 items, with bibliographical references. Several extremely rare or unique items not in the Biblioteca Nacional were on loan for the exhibition.

24. Prelo. 63 issues including 2 double and 2 triple issues (see below), apparently a complete run. 63 issues. Lisbon: Imprensa Nacional, 1972-2006. Folio (30 x 21 cm.; first series) and 8° (second and third series), original illustrated wrappers (1st and 2nd series) and original printed wrappers (3rd series). Illustrated. In very fine condition. ISSN: none (1st series and 2nd series, numbers 1-14 and the three unnumbered special issues) and 0871-0430 (2nd series, numbers 15-20 and 3rd series). 63 issues. $1,000.00

FIRST and ONLY EDITIONS, apparently A COMPLETE RUN. We say “apparently” because the bibliography of the first series of this review is rather confusing and sketchy. According to a knowledgeable employee of the Imprensa Nacional, we have all the issues ever published. We have never seen any other issues on the market or described in any reference work.

The set is as follows:

The first series is subtitled Revista nacional de artes gráficas. As the title implies, it is devoted to the graphic arts, with emphasis on printing processes, machinery, ink, paper and types. There are also articles on printing history, such as that in the first number by Jorge Peixoto on “Custódio José de Oliveira e as artes gráficas em Portugal”; and José Pedro Machado “O impressor de Os Lusiadas” in the second issue.

The second series is subtitled Revista da Imprensa Nacional / Casa da Moeda. It contains some material on printing history, but is mainly concerned with literature, literary history and criticism, with some bibliography thrown in. Edited by Diogo Pires Aurélvio, it includes contributions by Jorge Borges de Macedo, José-Augusto França, Eduardo Lourenço, Vasco Graça Moura, Sophia de Mello Breyner Andresen, Jorge Listopad, Hernâni Cidade, Clara Rocha, António Reis, Luís Filipe Barreto, Viale Moutinho, Eduardo Prado Coelho, José Mattoso, Diogo Pires Aurélvio, Miguel Torga, Mário Cláudio, Luís de Albuquerque, Eugénio Lisboa, José Fernandes Fafe, Eugénio de Andrade, António Ramos Rosa, Maria Alzira Seixo, Joel Serrão, António Coimbra Martins, Urbano Tavares Rodrigues, and others. Some of the literary contributions are otherwise unpublished.

The third series, of which nine numbers have appeared, includes three essays on Fernando Gil (1937-2006), by José Marinho, Miguel Real, and Manuel Ferreira Patrício. There are additional essays by A.M. Machado Pires on post-modernism, Ivo Castro on Pessoa, José Carlos Seabra Pereira on Vitorino Nemésio and Gomes Leal as art critics, and Rui de Figueiredo Marcos on the work of Paulo Merêa. A short story by José-Augusto França is followed by a brief theatrical piece by Luiz Francisco Rebello. The first number also contains an homage to Afonso Lopes Vieira, as well as critical articles by Luiz Francisco Rebello on the theater of José Régio, Duarte Ivo Cruz on the theater of Luiz Francisco Rebello, Duarte Ivo Cruz on the fourth volume of the Teatro completo of Jaime Salazar Sampaio, and more. Subsequent numbers contain additional material along these lines.

For the first series, we were able to confirm that it began in 1972 and that the British Library holds volume VI, numbers 1-3 [a triple issue]. Porbase lists for the first series only the first volume, 1972, and for the second series only states that it began in 1983 and that its appearance was “irregular”. The British Library Integrated Catalogue states that for the first series the BL has only volume VI, numbers 1-3; for the second series the BL holdings are less clear, the BLIC stating that it begins in 1983. Hollis does not list the first series at all, and states that Harvard has only numbers 10 through 20 of the second series. Orbis does not list the first series either, and states that Yale has numbers 1 through 20 of the second series. The Library of Congress Online Catalog does not mention the first series; it says the Library of Congress has 20 volumes of the second series, and that this series ceased with number 20 (1992). See also Almeida Marques 1724 for a set without any numbers of the first series, and with only numbers 1-16 and the three unnumbered special issues of the second series.

25. RIZZINI, Carlos. O livro, o jornal e a tipografia no Brasil 1500-1822, com um breve estudo geral sobre a informação …. Rio de Janeiro: Livraria Kosmos Editora, [colophon: 1945]. Large 8°, later gray leatherette (slightly warped), smooth spine with author and title gilt. Frontispiece reproduces a previously unpublished engraving by José Joaquim Viegas de Menezes, Vila Rica, 1829. Lightly browned, some foxing at beginning and end, repair to pp. 141-2 without loss. In good condition. One of 200 copies. Library stamps in margin of title-page and several other leaves, occasionally touching text. 445, (1) pp., profusely illustrated. Lacking the first (blank?) leaf, but half-title is present. $250.00

FIRST EDITION. Scarce and important history. Pages 11-138 contain a general history of Western manuscripts, printing, periodicals, and freedom of the press. Pages 139-308 describe early European literature on Brazil, Brazilian mail service, history of Jesuits in Brazil, and Portuguese printing, censorship and control of the Brazilian book trade. The work concludes with the origins of Brazilian printing and journalism (pp. 309-426).

The colophon on our copy bears the date 1945. All the copies in OCLC bear the date 1946, as does the large-paper copy (1 of 200) we have in our private reference collection.

FIRST and ONLY EDITION. Important reference work by the noted scholar-bookseller whose companion work, The Estiennes, appeared in 1982. This descriptive catalogue of the outstanding Colines collection built by the firm of E.K. Schreiber makes a significant contribution to sixteenth-century scholarship and the history of printing in France. The entries, arranged chronologically, include full collations and useful annotations which emphasize the contents of each book, its makers, its place in sixteenth-century intellectual history, and its position in the oeuvre of Colines. Preceding the catalogue is a valuable introduction (pp. xiii-lxxxiv, in French with full English translation) on the history of the Colines press by Jean Veyrin-Forrer. Two rare Simon de Colines publishers’ catalogues (ca. 1545-1546) are reproduced in facsimile in an appendix (pp. 203-29). Handsomely printed, designed by W. Thomas Taylor.

FIRST and ONLY EDITION. The editor provides an essay, “UnSpanish Practices: Spanish and Portuguese Jews, Protestants, and liberals, 1500-1900” (pp. 183-202). There are also essays on German (2), Dutch, Scandinavian, French (2), Italian (2), Greek, Russian, Polish, and Hungarian books printed in London, by Graham Jefcoate, Susan Reed, Anna E.C. Simoni, Peter Hogg, David J. Shaw, Morna Daniels, Stephen Parkin, Danis V. Reidy, Chris Michaelides, Kate Sealey Rahman, Janet Amroczek, and Bridget Guzner. From the dust jacket: “The fourteen essays in this volume represent the first systematic attempt to document and to analyse the tradition of foreign-language printing in London during the period 1500 to 1900. The surveys and case studies use a variety of approaches to document and describe this particular aspect of London printing history, from the history of printing, of publishing, and of bookselling, to consideration of the book as a cultural artefact.”

FIRST and ONLY EDITION of this descriptive bibliography of 65 books, pamphlets and broadsides in French, Italian, Spanish and Dutch that were published in England with false or no imprint. Provides full collations, detailed notes, copy locations, etc.
