FIRST EDITION. Borba comments, "extremely interesting and important for the information [it] provide[s] about the Portuguese Court and public administration in Rio de Janeiro at that time, and ... very difficult to find." Although nominally a biography, the Exposição includes much information not found elsewhere about the transfer of the Portuguese royal family to Brazil and contemporary political events.

The Visconde do Rio Secco, a wealthy merchant born at Belém, near Lisbon, was a confidant of D. João and often provided financial assistance. Along with Admiral Manuel da Cunha Souto Maior, he was charged with organizing the royal family's move to Brazil in 1807, and once there, held several important positions in the royal household in Rio de Janeiro. He administered the Fazenda de Santa Cruz and served as Director of the Brazilian Bank. His eminent position led to some public opprobrium, which he attempted to counter in this pamphlet and in Breve exposição do comportamento publico do Visconde do Rio Secco, Lisbon 1821. Innocência comments on the Exposição: "Posto que esta memoria pareça dirigir-se especialmente a elucidar questões pessoas do seu publicador, é todavia interessante pelas particularidades que encerra no tocante á transferencia da côrte de Portugal para o Brasil, e aos successos politicos do tempo; apresentando noticias curiosas e aproveitaveis, que n'outra parte se não encontrarão." Included with the main text (pp. 1-39) are 4 pages of notes, 28 pages of supporting documents, 9 pages of appendix and

Portugal's Greatest Sculptor Describes His Finest Work

2. CASTRO, Joaquim Machado de. Descrição analytica da execução da estatua equestre, erigida em Lisboa a gloria do Senhor Rei Fidelissimo D. José I Lisbon: Na Impressam Regia, 1810. 4° (22.8 x 17.7 cm.), contemporary tree sheep (some wear, but sound), smooth spine gilt, crimson leather lettering piece with short author-title lettered in gilt, marbled endleaves (part upper section of front free endleaf cut away, with a somewhat larger triangular piece torn away at upper outer corner). Clean and crisp, printed on high quality paper. Overall in very good condition. (8 ll.), xxxvi, 328 pp. [i.e., 326: pp. 312-26 misnumbered 314-28], (3 ll.), 25 engraved plates, of which 23 are numbered I through XXIII (2 folding). $1,800.00

FIRST EDITION of this significant work by Portugal's greatest sculptor (1731-1822), a celebrated figure throughout Europe in the eighteenth and early nineteenth centuries. The Descrição is the artist's detailed comments on the style and execution of his finest work, the equestrian statue of D. José I, erected in 1775 as part of the rebuilding of central Lisbon after the disastrous earthquake of 1755. The stages of construction are illustrated with sections and cross-sections of the horse and rider, views of the statue from different angles, and details of armor and ornamentation. This bronze statue remains one of Lisbon's most important monuments, and dominates one of the major squares of Europe, the Praça do Comercio or "Black Horse Square," known as the "Terreiro do Paço" prior to the earthquake, due to the fact that the former royal palace stood there. Lisbon residents sometimes still refer to the square by that name.

In the introduction, Machado de Castro comments on similar works of art in the rest of Europe. The supplement is a descriptive catalogue of 65 public statues in Europe, many of them since destroyed or moved from their original sites.

The first two plates, which are allegorical, were executed in Madrid by the Spanish engraver Rafael Esteves, and are dated 1805. The remaining 23 plates, comprising diagrams, sketches of the monument, and allegorical compositions, were engraved in Lisbon by the noted Portuguese engraver José Lucius da Costa, a.k.a. Lucius. Dates of these plates range from 1793 to 1796.

3. CERVANTES SAAVEDRA, Miguel. Viage del Parnaso.... Milan: Por Juã Bautista Bidelo [i.e., Giovanni Battista Bidelli], 1624. 12°, contemporary stiff vellum, faint vertical manuscript title on spine, remains of ties. Large woodcut printer's device on title page, depicting a cat with a rat in its mouth at center. Typographical headpiece and small woodcut initial on second leaf recto. Dampstain to lower inner corners of first few leaves. In very good, genuine and unsophisticated condition. Old (contemporary?) two-line ink manuscript inscription of Sigismundo Torello on front free endleaf recto. Old ink manuscript inscription "Gaspar Virgili" in lower blank margin of title page and later ink manuscript "R. 1119" in outer blank margin above imprint. Bookplate of Kenneth Rapoport. (2 ll.), 107 pp. a², A-D¹², E⁶. B1 unsigned. $12,000.00

Second edition, the first printed outside Spain, and one of only two printed in the seventeenth century. This edition, dedicated to Antonio Rodriguez de Frechilla, is as rare as the first, which had appeared in Madrid, 1614, dedicated to Rodrigo de Tapia. The third edition was only printed over 100 years later. The present edition contains on leaf a2 verso the sonnet by Cervantes "El Autor a su pluma", which was omitted from most subsequent editions.

The Viage del Parnaso is Cervantes' largest poetical work, written two years prior to his death. It is a humorous survey of contemporary poets, which when found deficient, were thrown overboard from a ship sailing to Parnassus.

A LOS HABITANTES DEL ESTADO.

LA Asamblea Legislativa me ha llamado al ejercicio del Poder Ejecutivo por decreto de éste día, en que declara haber lugar á la formacion de causa al Gefe del Estado.

La suprema dignidad no es cargo de cuyo desempeño me créa capáz, y mas en circunstancias tan difíciles, como por desgracia son las presentes; mas permitaseme decir, que como estoy acostumbrado á los sacrificios por la causa pública, yo obedezco al presente la ley, haciendolo grande, no solo por que toma sobre mí un peso grave, sino por que es en la ocasion de una responsabilidad declarada, á un funcionario cuyas virtudes aprecio.

El cuerpo legislativo sin duda las conoce, pero estimando que en su administracion las leyes han sido infringidas, las quiere hacer valer, aun en la persona de un ciudadano, cuyos servicios públicos son notorios—Es este un ejemplo grande de una escrupulosidad verdaderamente republicana, pues ni el respeto, ni la memoria de los merecimientos sirven de salva-guardia ante el legislador que mide con la vara de la ley.

Ella debe ser mi guía, y lo será indefectiblemente por los dias en que el poder estubiere en mis manos—Las leyes ofrecen seguridad, justicia y paz, y siendo á mi cargo su ejecucion, á estos grandes objetos dedicaré mis desvelos.

Si durante mi mando no hubiere motivo de que se derrame una sola lágrima, esta sola recompensa cumple mis deseos.

La Capital y el Estado, se hallan en calma: ayudadme ciudadanos á conservarla, y sobre este fondo hermoso podrán trazarse todos los bienes.
